To whom it may concern i believe that this has gone on way too long as if we didnt have enough problems with our economy this past year especially since september.11.lets all do what was handed down from the higher courts and be done with it i will always believe in Microsoft and company s that follow the same traditional way of doing business in our great country.Let us not bicker with lengthly new alligations or try to reverse the decisions that were agreed upon but let us move forward and look at the whole picture so we may learn from this.After this long battle lets move forward not backward s.God bless America.
